

TLILIC3008 Licence to operate a slewing mobile crane (up to 20 tonnes)

A slewing mobile crane means a mobile crane incorporating a boom jib that is capable of being slewed.

This excludes:

Loaders, backhoes, excavator and other earthmoving machinery when configured for lifting operations.

Note: a C2 licence incorporates CN and CV classes

If a slewing telehandler is fitted with a boom and/or jib with a hoist rope and/or hook block, a C2, C6, C1, C0

Requirements

- Participants must wear steel capped footwear. STO can provide Hi Visibility Clothing and Hard Hats. For any specific PPE requirements please contact STO
- Participants must provide 100 points of Identity and be a minimum of 18 years of age. Please see evidence of identity form
- English language skills need to be sufficient to understand and comprehend written and verbal instructions
- Numeracy skills are needed to interpret calculations and formulas

Content

- WHS Act, regulations, AS, Codes or practice
- Plan work
- Conduct routine checks
- Correctly interpret load charts
- Communication
- Set up, configure and operate a slewing crane safely
- Safely shift load
- Shut down and secure crane

Certification

On successful completion of this course, participants will be issued with a Notice of Satisfactory Assessment for Licence to operate a slewing mobile crane up to 20t – TLILIC 3008 by a Safe Work NSW Accredited Assessor

HRWL Application

Participants have 60 days to process there Notice of Satisfactory at a NSW post office, also a passport photo will need to be provided

Additional courses can be scheduled on demand please contact STO for further information

Time: 8am – 4pm Venue: Unit 15 – 16 Hopkins Street, Eden, NSW, 2551

Cost: $1950 per person Note: This does not cover the application fee to process your High-Risk Work Licence

Further Enquiries

Brodie Ridley
Email or P 1300 659 349

There are currently no dates available for this course.